Getting Started with Edmodo.com

What is Edmodo?

An online collaboration tool for educators to collaborate, share ideas and ask & respond to questions. This is a web 2.0 tool that is similar to Facebook but in a "safe", "private" environment.

To join, you will need to:

- 1. Create an account (free) and
- 2. Join a Group (your facilitator will provide the name of the group)

To create an account first go to: http://kpbsd.edmodo.com

.com

IMPORTANT!!!

Initially you will need to select "I'm a Teacher" to create your account (in the future, simply login with your username and password). In the sign up screen:

To "Join a Group" you will need to click on "JOIN" (located on the left of the screen under your "picture").

Remember to click on our GROUP and then respond to the discussion that is taking place If you don't, you won't send your response into our group. Thanks and see you all

Me - Sandy - yours shows up as "Sandy" not "Mrs. Miller". I think you are right, if you don't put a Title in your settings, it will call you by your first name. 27 minutes ago | Edt | Delete 🐴 10 New Group Memb
